

Paola Bozzi (PhD, Berlin 1996) teaches German Literary and Cultural Studies at the University of Milan (Università degli Studi di Milano), Italy. She is the author of Ästhetik des Leidens. Zur Lyrik Thomas Bernhards (1997), Der fremde Blick. Zum Werk Herta Müllers (2005), as well as of numerous essays on German and Austrian literature. She is currently working on a monograph about Vilém Flusser and his concept of freedom. Areas of interest: cultural studies, gender studies, philosophy and literature, 18th and 20th century German literature and aesthetics.