

Ines Koeltzsch, M. A., studied history, sociology and philosophy at the Technical University of Dresden and at the Charles University of Prague. Since 2003, she is a teaching assistant at the Osteuropa-Institute at the Free University of Berlin and she is currently working on her doctoral thesis entitled Shared Cultures. A History of Czech-Jewish-German Relationship in Prague Between the World Wars. Areas of interest: history of East Central Europe, social and cultural history of the Czechoslovak Jewry, urban history, cultural history of cinema.