

Alberto Carrillo studied philosophy with Ernst Tugendhat and Michael Theunissen and received his Ph.D. in 1994 at the Freie Universität in Berlin. From 1994 to 1997 he taught courses at the philosophical Institute of the FU-Berlin. In 1998, he accepted a post as professor of philosophy at the Universidad Autónoma de Puebla in Mexico. His main areas of research are history of science, aesthetics, and philosophy of technology. He is also a member of Sistema Nacional de Investigadores on the highest level (3).