

Rainer Guldin is Lecturer for German Language and Literature at the Faculty of Communication Sciences at the Università della Svizzera Italiana in Lugano (Switzerland). He studied English and German Literature in Zurich and Birmingham (England). His diploma was dedicated to the works of H.P. Lovecraft, and his Ph.D. thesis focused on the work of the German writer Hubert Fichte. He is Co-editor of the peer-reviewed multilingual open access e-journal Flusser Studies (<http://www.flusserstudies.net/>). Recent publications: Philosophieren zwischen den Sprachen. Vilém Flussers Werk, Munich 2005; Die Sprache des Himmels. Eine Geschichte der Wolken, Berlin 2006; „Wolkenformationen [...] aus dem Dunst der Möglichkeiten“ Zur nubigenen Einbildungskraft, Köln 2009.